Letter from the President...

Dear Guild Members,

Happy Ground Hog Day!
Happy Valentine's Day!
Quilt Show entry due date!

I look forward to our quilt show. There are always such beautiful quilts in the show. I hope everyone in the guild has a quilt in the show. This is truly a showcase for our members.

I hope all of our quilt guild members will be able to volunteer for the show. Please sign-up with DeAnn Ellis and let her know your availability. Working together is what makes our show so successful. If you can donate a filled basket for the basket raffle, please contact Terri Karls or Janet Woratschek. I'm sure they can help with suggestions for the baskets. Remember to think about what you will bring for the bake sale. You can be baking now and freeze until April.

I am looking forward to having Susan Cleveland at our guild. I have known Sue for a long time and she is one of my favorite quilt teachers.

The rules of quilting:

1. Don't bleed on the quilt
2. Measure twice, cut once
3. It's not a mistake. It's a creative opportunity
4. There are NO quilt police
5. Rules? There are no rules

—Sara Hochhauser

Programs/Workshops

We still have a few spots left in the February workshops. They are with Susan Cleveland. She is a fabulous teacher. Sign yourself up and ask a friend to join you. You pay 40.00 as a member and non-members pay $50.00. This is a very good price for her classes. Piping Hot Curves is offered on Friday, and on Saturday she will be doing Ringie Dingies.

Check out the guild website under programs for more information. Remember you can send a check to me (Terri Karls) or you can use Pay-Pal.

In March we have pam Dinndorf/Aardvark quilts coming. We have some room in that class so have a friend join you too. Pam is doing Parallel Lines on Friday and Squares Squared on Saturday I think she will be a great teacher. Her quilts are very nice and I think this is a great time to take one or both of her workshops More info. on the Website.

April: We have a new and up and coming quilter from our own backyard. She is Sara Nishura. I have spoken with her and I believe she will come to us with new ideas. Sign up for her workshop which is on Friday.

On the Saturday, we will be having a "Daytime Work on whatever you have to do." The cost is $10.00 and we will bring in lunch. The time will be from 9:00a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

May: We will have our final Speaker for the year which is Cynthia Wiseman from Fiber Art Chics. She will be doing 2-day workshop which is going to be fabulous. She offers a kit with the pattern in it for $27.00. We still have room in her workshop as well.

I will have my pen ready to take sign-ups for all of the wonderful classes. You can call me at home 630-257-6769 or karls25@att.net or pay by Pay-Pal.

—Terri Karls and Marilyn Montgomery, cochairs

Vintage Books/Garage Sale

Thanks for all the donations – Betsy Maloney has donated a lot thru the year (Xmas fabric for the last meeting), and so many others have also donated books, magazines, patterns, fabric, etc. We have a great group of members. We made over $73 the month of January. Debbie W. has lists of fabric and costs on Facebook, if you didn't get a chance to see/ buy at the meeting.

Other news: there will be NO sale of books, patterns, or magazines at the quilt show. I just found out that there will be the sale of fabric only. Everything left over after a meeting, will all be given to charity.

There will be NO Vintage books or Garage Sale for the April meeting. We need to get ready for the show.

—Ann Olson, Bobbie Butler, and Debbie Wesenberg

February	K, L, M	Be My Valentine
March	N, O, P, Q	Wearin' of the Green
April	R, S, T, U	April Showers
May	V, W, X, Y, Z	May Flowers

COMING SOON!

Before you know it, the April Quilt Show will be upon us. Since its inception, the Bake Sale has been a great success, contributing lots of $$$ to our coffers. The main reason it's been so successful is the generosity of our members and their great baking skills. IT'S NOT TOO EARLY TO THINK ABOUT THE BAKE SALE. You might get a jump on it by baking and freezing your items. All foodstuffs are welcome – especially cookies, bars, brownies, etc. Think outside the box and make spiced nuts, trail mix, granola bars, caramel corn, etc. Let's make this another successful Bake Sale!

Quilt Show 2020—

Sewn Together: Peace by Piece

HOW MUCH TIME DO WE HAVE??

The answer is: not much!

Quilt entries are due at this month's meeting. I'm proud that our guild represents beginners and experts, traditional, modern and art quilters. Don't be shy about entering your quilts; there's a place for everyone in our show.

Feedback from non-guild members at past shows indicates that our boutique is a favorite part of the show. Let's get it filled with an abundance of varied items. It's a win-win. Both the quilter and the guild can profit, and it makes our show special. A donation to silent auction is a prerequisite.

Please bring a fat quarter and new spool of thread for baskets. Other items are also welcome. Also, please donate fabric for Stripalooza.

Are we having fun yet? We should be, that's why we come to guild. We want to share the fun with others, so be sure to sell your entry tickets, and don't forget to invite friends to become members as well.

If you are part of a group or club that would be open to hosting our opportunity quilt and ticket sales, please let Marci Duryea, Kim, or me know. We'll take care of all the mechanics of setting up and selling tickets.

All of this doesn't happen without hard work, so be sure to volunteer with DeAnn to do your part. The show funds our meeting place and our speakers for the next 2 years.

We'll be sending committee chairs notice of a February meeting soon, so stay tuned.

Keep sewing!

—Claudia Moffat and Kim Siwinski, Co-chairs

Silent Auction— We got a nice assortment of Auction items at the last meeting. Please keep them coming. Items can be anything made such as baby items, slippers, purses, wallets, table toppers, baby blankets, and the list goes on and on. Please bring anything you do to the February meeting.

—Terri Karls and Janet Woratschek, Co-chairs

Baskets— Please remember items or made up baskets for the quilt show. Please bring things as soon as possible so that we can get started with assembling them. We could use kitchen items, garden items, man basket, kid's basket, movie basket, tea basket, coffee basket, items for a wool basket, items as rulers or quilting or stitching items. We need your help in filling the baskets. We used to be able to depend on the vendors to supply some items for the baskets, however those days seem to be gone. Janet sent out 40 letters and we have only heard back from 3 of them. That is why we need so many items. If possible, please bring items or finished baskets to the February meeting.

Attention all Board Members: Please bring your favorite sewing item to the February meeting as well. Remember we are making a basket from the Board. Please help.

—Terri Karls and Janet Woratschek, Co-chairs

Appraisals— The Salt Creek Quilt Guild will be offering a chance to have your quilts (old, antique, or recently made) appraised at our show. Appraisals are given for Insurance Value, Fair Market Value or Donation Value Three AQS Certified Quilted Textile Appraisers. Chris Moline, Lynn Contri, and Sue Harmon will be available to provide written appraisals by appointment on Saturday and Sunday. Interested parties are encouraged to make appointments before the show; however, walk-in appointments will be accepted during the show if time is available. Quilts on display at the show will be appraised where they are hanging. Cost of the appraisals are $50 for each quilt.

Appraisal Volunteers

We still have a few spots open for anyone who would like to help with determining the value of each quilt.

—Marie Dold and Anne Zick, Co-Chairs

Admission Tickets— Sell, sell, sell those tickets.

Remember, $6 now but $7 at the door.

—Sandy Byrnes

Boutique— If you plan to sell at the Boutique, please stop by the Boutique table at the February meeting to pick up inventory sheets and sales tags. The inventory sheets need to be returned by the March meeting. This helps us plan how items will be displayed. Contact Joan Chao with questions.

—Joan Chao and Pat Ciszewski, Co-chairs

Volunteers— CALLING ALL MEMBERS!
VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

The quilt show is coming up quickly! Attached to this newsletter is the volunteer form you can complete to choose your time frame and preferred position! We'll also have the charts available at the guild meeting again, so you can lock in your slot at the quilt show! Either option works for me! Just sign up! We need YOU!

—DeAnn Ellis

Quilt Show Entries— Just a reminder that quilt entries for the 2020 April quilt show MUST BE TURNED IN BY OUR FEBRUARY MEETING, February 13, 2020. No entries will be accepted after this time.

The entry form can be found online and on the last page of this issue.

—Lois Flood Rachel Picek, Co-chairs

Please submit your entry on the general form which has been included in both the November and December newsletters. BE SURE TO NOTE THAT THIS IS A CHALLENGE QUILT ON YOUR ENTRY FORM. Include an explanation of the way this quilt relates to Carole King, if it is based on a song note the name of the song. All entries will be due by the February guild meeting.

—Linda Kennedy and Louise Graff, Co-Chairs

Salt Creek Quilt Guild Meeting Minutes January 9, 2020

Sara Hochhauser, President, welcomed everyone to the meeting and apologized for the change in rooms at 7:00 pm. On arriving at The Hinsdale Community Center, we learned that our normal meeting room was in use by a play production rehearsal.

The purses filled with feminine hygiene products were taken to DuPage County resale shop where they were much appreciated.

Janet Woratschek, Treasurer, stated that we have a little more than $32,300 in the bank and all monies turned into her have been deposited.

Lois Flood was thankful for the 36 quilts completed, that she was able to donate to the Alzheimer's charity.

Due to the last-minute room change, library books were not taken out of the case; Barb will be happy to grab a needed book for you. When Barb moves, Ann Olson has stepped up and volunteered to take over library.

Charity quilts are in the back ready to go home with members to be finished.

Quilt Show News

The barn quilts from the last workshop can be entered in the quilt show.

Claudia has quilt show packets that weren't previously picked up. Bookmarks are printed and ready to be distributed, please grab some and take them to some of your favorite haunts. Claudia also reminded us to get our quilt forms into Lois.

DeAnn Ellis and her mom, Joann Murphy, are in charge of volunteers and are looking for membership to sign up. There are lots of opportunities.

The boutique is looking for more sellers. It is also going to have a Scrapapalooza. They are planning on selling 2.5-inch strips and 5-inch squares. Help is needed in cutting these.

Janet and Terri are in charge of the Raffle Baskets and are asking everyone to donate a new spool of thread and a fat quarter.

Louise and Linda reminded us it is not too late to start on your challenge quilts. Over 40 kits went out so let's have them all be entered in the show. There is a spot on the quilt entry forms where you can indicate if it's a challenge quilt.

Lolly asked for members willing to do a demonstration to please contact her. She is confident our membership holds extremely talented people to make this a cherished part of our show.

Mary is still looking for vendors and has extra contracts if anyone would like to take one to give to friend or interested vendor.

Workshops

Marilyn showed us YouTubes on Susan Cleveland and her Dresden Plates and Piping Hot Binding. Susan Cleveland will be our February speaker. There was also a YouTube video on our March speaker Pam Goecke Dinndorf.

Retreat

There is a commuter rate for our retreat this year. Next week a letter will go out that has suggestions as to what to bring to retreat.

At 7:25 pm we had our Show and Tell. It was a small showing tonight but full of wonderful talent. Marilyn showed her wool appliqué Santa pillow. Joan showed her quilt that used Liberty of London fabrics and the pattern was Lady of the Lake. Kennette showed her finished Pat Yemen workshop quilts.

We then had break until 7:45 pm at which time Marilyn introduced our speaker Dawn Shuck. She drove here from just outside Branson, Missouri and showed us wonderful wool projects. She actually started stitching when she was just 5 years old. But she started quilting after being married and she had younger children.

Lecture and questions ended at 8:15 pm at which time Martha informed us we had 75 members in attendance and she handed out 3 Door Prizes.

Debbie Wesenberg made a motion to adjourn at 8:20 pm and was seconded by Ann Olson.
